ANNOUNCE BIG REVIVAL HERE

Rushville Ministerial Association Arranges For Monster Union Meeting to be Held June 7 to 21.

REV. W. W. ORR TO CONDUCT IT

Two Weeks' Revival May be Held in Tabernacle if Arrangements
Can be Made.

Announcement was made today of a monster union meeting which will be held here next summer beginning June 7, and continuing to June 21. The meeting will be conducted by the Rev. W. W. Orr of Charlotte, North Carolina, who is conceded to be one of the greatest evangelists of the present age. It is likely that the two weeks' meeting will be held in a tabernacle if suitable arrangements can be made. Every church in the city is in perfect accord and will work in harmony to make it the greatest spiritual awakening that was ever experienced in Rushville.

The members of the Rushville Ministerial Association have been working on this meeting for several months and not until just a few days ago did they have any assurance that it would be a certainty. The members of the association were more than pleased to obtain a date on the Rev. Mr. Orr's itinerary. Union meetings have been considered and planned here for years but a monster one of such proportions as the Orr meeting promises to be was never arranged and carried out successfully.

The Rev. Mr. Orr is the minister in United Presbyterian church and has conducted most of his revivals in that church. But many of his successful meetings have been held in churches of other denominations. The Rev. Mr. Orr is employed as the pastor of a church at his home in Charlotte, but seldom preaches there. He employs an assistant and spends most of his time in the evangelistic field. It is said that the church regards the pastor with such high esteem that he is not allowed to resign but must go on in that capacity even though he very seldom preaches there. Due to his great popularity the local ministerial association was unable to get Dr. Orr for any other date than the one obtained. He has agreed to remain only two weeks on account of other pressing engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, whose home is in Connersville, are singing evangelists who accompany Evangelist Orr. Both are soloists of ability, sing duets, and Mrs. Ross is an accomplished pianist in both solo work and as an accompanist. They will assist the Rev. Mr. Orr in the meeting here and will lead the singing.

The place for holding the meeting has not yet been definitely decided. An effort will be made to build a tab-

WILL CONFER FIRST RANK

Local K. of P. Degree Team to Work in Connersville Friday.

Knights of Pythias all over Rush county are invited to attend the big meeting in Connersville Friday evening. It is thought that at least seventy-five from this county will be in attendance at the affair which will be held in the Auditorium opera house. A large number of candidates will be initiated. The local lodge has a good degree team which has been practicing diligently for the Connersville work. The local team will confer the first rank on the class.

ernacle on a vacant lot some place in the city which will accommodate a large crowd. It is said that if a tabernacle can not be arranged for that a large tent will probably be used. There is not a church auditorium in the city which will hold the crowds that are expected at the Orr meeting and for that reason principally it is planned to build a tabernacle. It is also said that a much larger crowd can be attracted if the meeting is not held in a church. The organization for the union meeting has not yet been completed. A few committees have been appointed while others have not yet been arranged for. It is planned to get the organization in good working order as soon as possible so that active preparations can be started at once. The various committees will be announced in a few days.

Dr. Orr is now conducting a revival meeting in San Jose, California, and is meeting with great success, according to word received here.

FALL FROM LADDER RESULTS FATALLY

Andrew M. Gardner, 59 Years Old, Died Early This Morning in Arlington.

WAS TEARING DOWN BUILDING

Andrew M. Gardner, 59 years old, died this morning shortly after midnight at his home in Arlington. His death was caused by injuries received in a fall Monday morning. Mr. Gardner was a carpenter by trade and was engaged in tearing down a building. He had almost completed the work when he lost his balance, falling from the top rung of a ladder to the ground, a distance of ten or twelve feet. He fell on his head and shoulder, being paralyzed as a result. His condition was such as to cause grave fears as to his recovery and had gradually grown weaker.

Mr. Gardner was born in Tennessee, September 19, 1851. He had lived in Arlington a number of years and besides being a carpenter, was engaged in the photography business. He is survived by a widow, six sons and two daughters.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in the Arlington M. E. church in charge of the Red Men lodge, of which deceased was a member. The remains will be taken to Anderson for burial.

WELL KNOWN CIVIL WAR VETERAN DEAD

James M. Tillison, 73 Years Old, Succumbs at His Home in Blue Ridge.

FUNERAL TOMORROW MORNING

The funeral services of James M. Tillison, who died yesterday at his home in Blue Ridge, will be held tomorrow at the M. E. church there, conducted by the Rev. R. T. Biven, assisted by the Rev. James L. Brown of near Rays Crossing and the Rev. J. T. Seull, Sr., of Milroy. Mr. Tillison was 73 years old and a veteran of the Civil war. His death was caused by pneumonia, after a short illness. During the war he served in the Union army as a member of Company E, 37th Indiana Infantry. A rifle ball penetrated his right lung during a big battle and he never recovered from the effects of the injury. Besides a widow he is survived by a son, the Rev. Loren Tillison of Orange township.

ENUMERATORS BEGIN WORK

School Officials Are Very Anxious That Every School Child in City be Counted.

MAY GET IDEA ON POPULATION,

Special Precaution to be Taken so as to Get as Large a Fund as Possible.

The work of taking the school enumeration in Rushville is now in progress and is being done under the supervision of W. E. Wallace of the city school board. The enumerators have until April 30 to complete the work.

The utmost care will be taken by those in charge of the work to enumerate every person of a school age, between the years of six and twenty-one years. The school trustees desire that the public assist the enumerators as much as possible in the work and supply them with the names of all within their households of a school age.

Special precaution is needed in taking the enumeration in order that the city can secure as large a fund as possible from the school appropriation. The division is made on a per capita basis and the more of a school age reported the more money the city will receive for school purposes. The enumerators are required to secure from parents and guardians a sworn statement that the number of school children reported is correct.

In this city the interest in the school enumeration this year is unusually great because of the belief that the population of the city as shown by the 1910 census is incorrect. Judging from the local option election figures there are more than 4925 in Rushville and it is believed that the enumeration will show between 5000 and 6000 inhabitants.

Charles A. Greathouse, State superintendent of public instruction, has issued the following statement:

"The enumeration must be taken between the 10th and 30th of April. Only unmarried persons are enumerated. It is not legal to enumerate persons who were 21 years old prior to April 10 or who will not be 6 years old until after April 30. It is illegal to enumerate persons attending school in a corporation, but whose parents or guardians live elsewhere. Enumerators must be paid by the day, and any other plan of paying enumerators is illegal. In cities a sufficient number of enumerators should be employed to do good, accurate work. Since all of the work must be done in twenty days, poor work can not be rectified after the time has expired. Phenomenal increases in enumeration will be investigated."

QUARANTINE IS RENEWED

Ban Lifted in Shelbyville for Hour;
Seven New Cases.

Orders re-establishing the public smallpox quarantine in Shelbyville were issued at a special meeting of the City Health Board and school authorities held last night. The quarantine had been lifted and went into effect at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An hour later seven new cases were reported, and this caused the authorities to take hasty action. The public schools which were to have been opened this morning will remain closed for the remainder of the week. No indoor public meetings of any character will be permitted.

TO FILE MOTION BEFORE DAY ENDS

Attorneys For Ben Noble Will Have Papers Asking For New Trial,
This Evening.

NOT FINISHED LATE TODAY

Will be Very Voluminous and Contain Sixty Paragraphs on Ecep-tions to Court's Verdict.

It was expected that a motion for a new trial in the case of the State against Ben Noble, who was convicted for murder in the first degree in the last term of court, for the killing of Albert Sprague of Decatur county, would be filed today, but it was not forthcoming at a late hour this afternoon. Counsel for Noble said this afternoon that the motion would be filed this evening before the clerk's office closed. It was necessary to file the motion today to be within the bounds of the law which requires that a new motion shall be filed within thirty days after the time a verdict is returned. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and a sentence of life imprisonment in the State prison at ten o'clock on the night of March 13. The time for filing the motion is up this evening.

Donald Smith of the law firm of Smith, Cambern & Smith, who are employed as attorneys for the defense, said this afternoon that the motion for a new trial will be very voluminous. It contains sixty paragraphs in which exceptions are taken to Judge Alonzo Blair's instructions to the jury. It will be remembered that the court gave forty-nine paragraphs in his instructions and that the defense asked for instructions on ten other things which were not incorporated by the court. The local attorneys have prepared that part of the motion while the Greensburg firm has prepared that part of the motion which pertains to new evidence.

John Osborne of the law firm of Osborne & Harding of Greensburg, was here this afternoon and spent most of the time with Ben Noble in the jail. It has been his work to prepare that part of the motion in which an effort will be made to show that new evidence will be introduced if a new trial is allowed by the court.

It has been intimated that the attorneys for Noble had found some new evidence that will be beneficial to Noble and that it is sufficient to cause the court to grant the motion for a new trial. It has been rumored that the new evidence is of a very sensational nature and that some surprises will be sprung if the new trial is allowed.

The argument on the motion for a new trial will not be held until the next term of court so it is said, as Judge Blair is now busy hearing the evidence in the Straight will case in the Shelby circuit court. It was thought at first that the motion would be argued as soon as it was filed.

AGED MAN DIES SUDDENLY

David Cline, 83 Years Old, Passed Away Today.

David Cline, 83 years old, died this morning at the county asylum. Mr. Cline's death was very sudden, being due to heart trouble. He complained of being ill last night, but was able to walk around in the yard this morning. He retired to his room about ten o'clock and expired before anyone could reach his side. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sam VanSickle in South Morgan street. Burial will take place in Pleasant Run cemetery.

WOMAN IS BADLY HURT IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. James Dickey of Near Fairview is Thrown From Wagon and Suffers Serious Injuries.

RIBS AND SHOULDER BROKEN

Mrs. James Dickey, living two and one-half miles east of Fairview was thrown from a spring wagon late yesterday afternoon, when one of the front wheels was locked under the wagon while the driver was turning the horse around in the road. Mrs. Dickey suffered a fracture of her ribs on the right side, two broken ribs on her left side and a broken right shoulder. Drs. Elliott and Paxton of Glenwood were called at once and set the broken bones. Mrs. Dickey passed a very restless night and suffered much pain today. Physicians say that it will be a long time before she will be able to get around again.

Mrs. Dickey had just started to Fairview, when the accident happened. She started to turn the horse around in the road when one of the front wheels was locked under the bed of the wagon as she tried to turn in too small a space. When the wheel was locked, the horse jerked suddenly, throwing Mrs. Dickey to the ground with considerable force.

LUCKY BLACK GETS DONATIONS

Unfortunate Victim of Fire Gets Good Sum of Money Today to Partially Pay Loss.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS BURNED

Lucky Black, whose household goods were destroyed by a fire on the Levi Retherford farm about two miles northeast of the city yesterday afternoon, circulated a paper among the business men, asking for small donations. The flames ate up everything which the diminutive farm hand owned and entailed a loss of about three hundred dollars. He carried no insurance and is left without a penny, all of this world's goods being destroyed. Many of the business men subscribed liberally and Lucky collected a neat sum to refurbish his house before the day was old.

The fire, which destroyed the household goods and also the little house on the Retherford farm, started from a defective flue. It was first discovered by Mrs. Black who called to the men working near but their assistance came too late. The house was valued at three hundred dollars with no insurance.

NEXT MEETING TO BE AT DILLSBORO

Spring Meeting of Whitewater Presbytery Closes in Greensburg—
Many Questions Settled.

THE REV. W. H. CLARK SPEAKS

Decided That Time For Beginning of Ecclesiastical Year Should Not be Changed.

The Rev. John B. Meacham, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Frank Reynolds, lay delegate from the local church, have returned from Greensburg, where they attended the spring meeting of the Whitewater Presbytery. The annual session closed last night with a popular gathering at which time the Rev. W. F. Grossman of New Albany delivered the sermon. The Rev. W. H. Clark, pastor of the Connersville Presbyterian church also preached. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Dillsboro, in Dearborn county. The town is located southwest of Lawrenceburg.

A number of important questions were settled at this session of the Presbytery. The most important thing was the question as to whether or not the beginning of the ecclesiastical year should be changed from April 1 to January 1. There was an animated discussion on that one topic and the final vote was in favor of leaving the time of the year as it is at present and no change will be made.

It was decided that a written examination may be required of one asking to be admitted to the ministry. The motion carried only after an animated discussion. There were a number of other questions in regard to church policy which were sent down from the General Assembly for action at the Presbytery.

The Rev. H. W. Huffer of Liberty was chosen ministerial commissioner to the General Assembly of the church and the Rev. T. J. Graham of Richmond, alternate. From the elders of the church organization, J. S. Coleman of Aurora was elected commissioner and M. E. Leffingwell of Connersville, alternate. The Rev. R. H. Boteler of Dell Rapids, S. D., was taken into the presbytery and the Rev. S. W. Huffer of Liberty granted a dismissal.

RUSHVILLE HAS CHANCE

New Castle is Only Real Contender
For Bertsch Foundry.

It has developed that New Castle and Rushville are preparing to begin an active campaign in opposition to Richmond for the purpose of securing the Bertsch foundry of Cambridge City, says the Richmond Item. It is stated that nearly every city in the central part of Indiana is casting longing eyes in the direction of the foundry and that some large bonuses may be offered. The foundry has decided to leave Cambridge City because of a recent action of the Pennsylvania railroad that made it inconvenient to receive supplies. It has been stated by a member of the firm that it is desired to find a location as near to Cambridge City as possible.

Deputy Collector Hagler and a posse went into the Van Buren county moonshining district and came upon an illicit distillery in full operation. As the posse was in the act of confiscating the apparatus five "moonshiners" appeared. A gun fight followed. Three of the distillers fell. Among these was Henry Sullivan, who was killed. A HERESY HUNT

Presbyterians Fixing For Another Declaration of Faith.

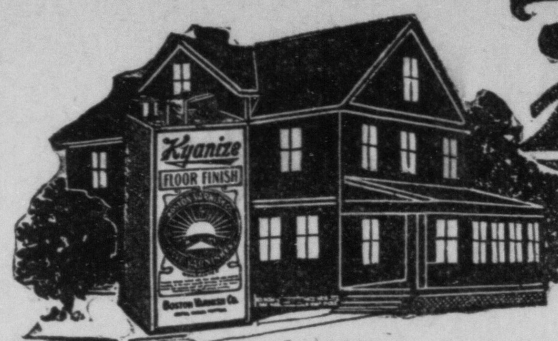

Pittsburg, April 12.—Acting under the leadership of Rev. D. W. McEwen, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, this city, the Pittsburg presbytery took the initiative in a new heresy hunt which is directed against the doctrine being promulgated by Rev. Dr. William Adams Brown, at the Union Theological seminary. It was charged by Dr. McEwen that the teachings of Dr. Brown on the inspiration of the Bible and on miracles are not in accordance with the orthodox teachings of the Presbyterian church, and he made a demand that this presbytery have Dr. Brown brought before the general assembly next month at Atlantic City.

The presbytery accepted his overture and referred it to its committee on bills and overtures with instructions to report thereon.

AMUSEMENTS

Never has such measure of success been served out to any play as that given "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," which will be presented at the Shubert Murat theater for three nights, starting Thursday, April 13, with a matinee on Saturday. New York crowded to the Maxine Elliott theater for seven months last season to witness this symbolic drama, and on its return visit to Broadway, every seat was occupied throughout the second run.

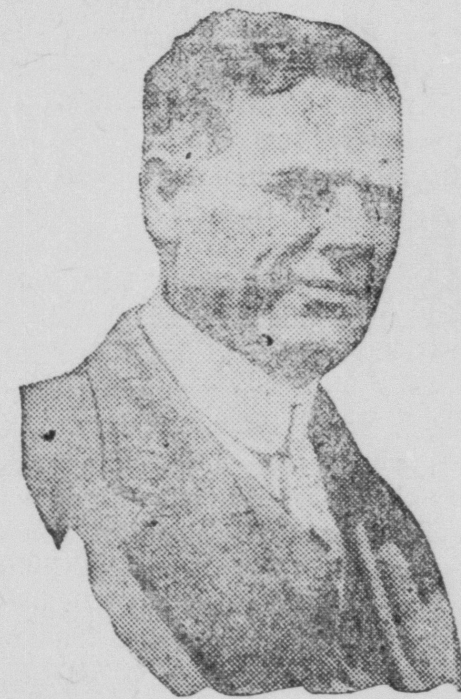

Forbes-Robertson, who is the star of the piece, is one of the greatest actors who treads the boards today, possessing a personality the like of which is scarcely exemplified, while the culture and beautiful modulation of his voice is a thing to be remembered with delight. As the "Passer-by" he gives a performance which is artistic to a degree, and which dominates the feelings long after one has left the theater. He appeals to the better nature of his fellow-guests in the lodging house to which he comes to stay. And they are a motley lot. One of the outstanding characters is a lady of forty, painted like a girl half that age. Then there is the "Slavey" and the "Landlady," who wishes to make a fortune quickly out of her lodgers. Love interest is sustained by a beautiful young girl who wants to marry a penniless young artist, but can not resist the temptation of the money of a man old enough to be her father. And so on. Each one is a life drawn sketch, true to everyday life.

Owing to the enormous demand for seats for this attraction out-of-town patrons should order their tickets at once to get desirable seats.

THE ITEMS ON THE FREE LIST

Will Include Many of the Necessaries of Life.

HOUSE CAUCUS TAKES ACTION

Following the Disposition of the Canadian Reciprocity Agreement, Upon Which There Will Be No Delay, the Ways and Means Committee Will Bring a Bill Designed to Reduce the Cost of Living.

Washington, April 12.—The first thing considered by the house of representatives will be Canadian reciprocity. Accepting President Taft's pledge that he would not prorogue congress, the house caucus of Democrats which met last night decided to act on reciprocity first and then bring in a bill putting many necessities of life on the free list. The free list bill, which will be brought into congress immediately after reciprocity, will include the following: Agricultural implements, such as plows, harrows, reapers, binders and mowers; boots and shoes; saddles and saddlery; wire fencing; baling wire; cotton bagging and ties; coarse sacks; burlap; lumber; flour; dressed meats and meat products, and sewing machines.

Within two weeks the Democrats will hold another caucus to decide upon their course with regard to the woolen and cotton schedules. It is inevitable that they will take action on these schedules, but after the ways and means committee has decided on the reductions that they think are proper they desire to have the Democratic membership of the house get together and give their indorsement to a bill embodying the committee recommendations. The ways and means Democrats desire to get the reciprocity bill through the house and over to the senate and to act upon the general measure carrying the above items before taking up any further details of the tariff.

It was practically decided that reciprocity, the free list bill and the woolen and cotton schedules should be the only propositions on which the Democrats will caucus. This means that while there will be no party caucus on the election of senators by direct vote of the people, the publicity of campaign contributions and the other items of the general legislative program already indorsed by the house Democrats those measures may be brought in at any time and acted on as general propositions of party policy in the regular way.

GETTING BUSY AGAIN

Mexican Rebels Again Succeed in Tying Up Railroads.

El Paso, Tex., April 12.—Insurrectos have advanced north. The Mexico Northwestern railroad, the Pearson road, is tied up again. Officials in Juarez, if they know what the trouble is, declined to state. Durango is still cut off from railroad communication because of burned bridges. The road between Chihuahua and Torreon is again cut, and once more Chihuahua is isolated completely.

Twenty miles south of Cananea, the federales advancing on Arizona encountered a band of insurrectos mining the road with dynamite, and killed almost a score, routing the entire command, of which a number were Americans.

The women folk of the entire Terrazas family passed through here en route to California. They have not been in Chihuahua, their home, for several months, and are now leaving Mexico City. The war in Chihuahua was brought about to a large extent by the Terrazas family.

Johnson to Be Buried at Brooklyn.
Cleveland, O., April 12.—There will be no funeral services for Tom L. Johnson in Cleveland. The body was removed from the Whitehall, where Mr. Johnson died, to the Johnson family apartments in the Knickerbocker, and this afternoon it was taken to the union passenger station and conveyed to Brooklyn, N. Y. The burial will take place at Greenwood cemetery there tomorrow forenoon at 11:30.

Coming Home on Sad Errand.
Lima, Peru, April 12.—Horace G. Knowles, the United States minister to Bolivia, accompanied by Mrs. Knowles, has sailed from Callao for Panama with the body of their son Malcolm, who was killed recently in a trolley car accident at La Paz. The body will be taken from Panama to Mr. Knowles' home in Wilmington, Del.

Held to Answer Murder Charge.
Paris, Ill., April 12.—After investigating the death of Richard Brown, the coroner's jury returned a verdict in which it said that John Ruckman fired the fatal shot. Ruckman and Frank Manke, the latter charged with being an accessory to the crime, were bound over to the grand jury.

Took It Out of Jackson's Hands.
Washington, April 12.—The Democratic committee on patronage in the house of representatives will assign a cashier to serve in the office of sergeant-at-arms under Stokes Jackson. This is the place to which Jackson announced he would appoint his son.

HENRY A. BARNHART

Indiana Congressman Proposes Federal Care of the Children.

PROPOSAL MADE FOR A CHILDREN'S BUREAU

Congressman Barnhart's Bill for a New Department.

Washington April 12.—The claims of children upon the nation have been formally recognized in congress.

A bill of wide interest to educators, philanthropists and associations generally was introduced by Representative Barnhart of Indiana. The bill provides for the establishment in the department of commerce and labor of the "children's bureau."

The bureau shall investigate and report upon all matters pertaining to the welfare of child life and investigate the questions of infant mortality, of the birth rate, physical degeneracy, sanitary conditions of schools and orphan homes, juvenile delinquency, juvenile courts, desertion, dangerous employment and such other information as may have a bearing upon the health, efficiency, character and welfare of human life.

SAM LLOYD DEAD

The Man Who Had Entertained Millions With His Puzzles.

New York, April 12.—Samuel Lloyd is dead at his home in Brooklyn. The children of more than three generations have known Samuel Lloyd and his puzzles. Fifty years ago, when a young man Lloyd, educated as a civil engineer at German universities, invented in an idle moment the famous "donkey puzzle" of which over a billion copies have since been printed. With the money made from the first attempt in the field of puzzle making Lloyd shrewdly invested in real estate and Wall street stocks. In his Wall street investment he never traded on margin but bought outright. Some of his best known puzzles are "Fifteen block," "Get off the earth" and the "donkey."

As a young man Lloyd not only invented, but drew, engraved, set up and printed his own puzzles, but in later years he left this to others. He believed in puzzle practice as a means of education for youths of stunted mentality. His theory was that a child who normally detested mathematical problems if interested in figures from the puzzle end would unconsciously teach himself to think properly, concentrate his mind, and in the end acquire the same facility in dealing with mathematical problems of an identical nature as those treated in the puzzle with much less wear and tear upon his gray matter, and in a far more congenial way.

Committees Made Up.

Washington, April 12.—The house adopted the committee list made up and submitted by Representatives Underwood of Alabama and Mann of Illinois, leaders respectively of the majority and minority. This was the final report of the committee on committees, the reform plan adopted by the Democrats in the organization of the house.

Emotional Insanity His Defense.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 12.—John M. Ross, a wealthy marble quarry owner, who on Jan. 24 last horsewhipped J. Frederick Baumann, bookkeeper for the Third National bank, in the directors' room at the bank, is on trial here. The offense is punishable by penitentiary sentence in this state. A plea of emotional insanity was entered.

Seven Prisoners Escaped.

Fairmont, W. Va., April 12.—Seven prisoners escaped from the Marion county jail in this city. The jail, a temporary one in the basement of the courthouse, is being used while a modern structure is being erected. The bars were broken from a window.

Caloric Fireless Cook Stove

It Bakes and Roasts
Stews, Steams and Boils

There is a vast difference between the "Caloric" and ordinary so-called "fireless cookers." It is far more efficient and useful. True, the price may be a trifle higher, but then the "Caloric" is worth more money, and in the end is less expensive than any other. It will pay for itself many times over in the saving of fuel and food to say nothing of time, labor and discomfort.

The "Caloric" is a complete cook stove and can be used the year around, winter and summer. In many homes it is considered an indispensable kitchen appliance and is used in the preparation of every meal. At every use it means both convenience and economy to the housewife—she is enabled to do something else while the "Caloric" cooks the meal.

We want you to see and examine these wonderful stoves and will gladly explain them to you upon request. You will be under no obligation to purchase.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN
ADVERTISING BY THEAMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATIONGENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIESValue in Road Making.

It is not overstepping the bounds to say that at least one-half of the men having the responsibility to build and repair the roads in Rush county know very little about the subject; they have not had the engineering experience nor the practical experience; they have simply followed those who have gone before and have done as their predecessors did before them. They are not to blame.

In the movement for better highways, which is becoming more general in all parts of the United States, the initial step is the more intelligent expenditure of money, appropriated for that purpose and the more careful use of time for the betterment of roads to the end that the taxpayers who pay the money and must use the roads shall get the most for the money which is invested. It is the general thing to do the right thing at the wrong time or vice versa. In other words it is common to expend the money, if for the proper purpose, at the wrong time of the year so that when one dollar is spent, only fifty cents worth of good is done when one hundred cents worth of good must be done.

The Kansas City council has passed an anti-hat pin order and soon they will know how the Russian Duma feels when the Czar kicks a session's work into the coal hole.

It is said that Mr. Aldrich could draw all the money out of the treasury under his powers by the money-tary commission law. But as so much of it would be gold and silver, he could not get far with his pockets so weighed down.

King George of England is printing a million coronation stamps an hour. Soon he will take them to the trading stamp store, and resolutely denying himself lamp shades and morris chairs, will swap them for one crown.

We are delighted to note that the Richmond Item and Palladium have ceased the petty quarrels over their respective circulation and are now devoting the space on the front page to matters of interest to their readers.

They have equalized the pay of men and women teachers in New York, by reducing the men's salaries. The men, however, still have the chance to rise in life by becoming janitors.

Congress has lopped off expenses amounting to $182,000, but until the appropriation bill passes, we shall not be confident that Uncle Sam will get the money into the Penny Provident Fund.

Publicity of campaign contributions is now before congress. If elections are to be auctioned off, the defeated party is at least entitled to know that the other fellow really made a higher bid.

They are talking of an international police navy. The first thing would be to run Kaiser Wilhelm in for strutting down Main street with both his elbows sticking out.

If Senator O'Gorman will search carefully in Chauncey Depew's desk, he may find some chestnuts that will come in handy when he is hungry on these exhausting night sessions.

All this talk about the harem skirt indicates that some day it will no longer be a crime for a woman to have legs.

Splendid Opportunity.

Tomorrow will be an ideal time to put the road drag to practical advantage on the streets of Rushville, if there is no more rainfall. The rain of yesterday evening and last night made the streets rather soft so that a road drag used today might be a detriment rather than a good. But with the road drag great good can be accomplished tomorrow. The streets will be dried sufficiently so that a good dragging will take off all of the high places and will fill up the holes to a nicety. Then is the ideal time.

EDITORIALETTES.

Our poetic nature is somewhat disturbed by this—we would like to see a good cartoon of spring lounging lazily on the broken backbone of winter.

That's what might be properly termed piffle. That is an answer to that questioner who wanted to know the meaning of the word.

Foreign grown strawberries are good for but one thing: to alienate a man's taste for dried peaches.

The last session of congress can not be expected to meet with your approval until it is learned whether or not the garden seeds which the dear congressmen sent out are going to come up.

While many Rushville women will not don the harem skirt, the great majority of them will still continue to be head of the house.

It's just a wee bit early to be thinking about a change yet.

They say that the "bar flies" are not even leaving a speck behind these days.

We often wondered why it is impossible to get more pork when hogs are around seven dollars than when they were over nine dollars.

If being useful is the rent which we must pay for the space which we take up here below, some of us are hopelessly delinquent.

Now isn't that peevish?

The Kokomo Tribune wants to know if there is anyone with a reckless courage to start "back to the home" movement among the suffragettes.

LOCAL AGENT WAS IN ATTENDANCE

Association of Pennsylvania Lines

Agents Met Yesterday in All

Day Session in Columbus.

HAD IMPORTANT DISCUSSIONS

Members of the association of the Pennsylvania lines agents from the main line and branches met yesterday in Columbus with other officials of the road to discuss matters of mutual importance and interest. J. M. Higgins, agent in this city, attended the meeting.

The report that the company had called the agents together to discuss plans for further retrenchment and to urge greater economy in all departments was denied.

The outline of subjects discussed yesterday included talks on car service on cars for delivery on connecting line tracks; keeping records of sealed cars and seals; the general subject of claims and how to prevent them; soliciting traffic, the use of preference tickets, bills of lading and the movement of traffic.

The association of agents was organized at a meeting held a year or two ago and since that time regular meetings have been held. The railroad men are reached better in these meetings than any other way, the company officials think, and considerable good has been achieved through the organization.

AMUSEMENTS

Local people who plan to see Forbes Robertson in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," which begins a three day's run at the Murat theater in Indianapolis Thursday evening, should obtain their seats at once as the seat sale so far is a record breaker for any Indianapolis playhouse. Seats may be reserved at the I & C. traction station.

The Palace will offer two reels of pictures tonight, containing three subjects. The Lubin film, "The Actress and the Singer" is a dramatic story of theater life in which a young tenor makes good with his voice and also with the prima donna of the company. The story is a good one. "Mandy's Social Whirl" is a drama of real life, in which the country girl goes to the city. "Overland to Fremont" is the other Selig picture which is of an educational nature.

The new Portola theater will put on a complete change of program tonight, showing two reels of pictures. The Selig film "The Outbreak," is a western drama, depicting a story of thrilling interest with many sensational episodes. The Biograph picture is a drama, which is acted by the celebrated Biograph stock company. "The Decree of Destiny" is a late picture of merit and is said to be above average of the films made by that popular company. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Vaudet will show a big double program tonight with an Imp and an American film. The Imp reel contains two pictures, one a comedy and the other a drama. "A Clever Ruse" is a comedy which is as clever as the title indicates. It is brimful of fun and humorous incidents. The other picture, "Faithful Max" is a drama of great merit. The American subject is entitled "A Touching Affair." It is a comedy said to be the equal of the first. Good music and a new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand will present a double program tonight in the two full reels of film. The first is a Reliance comedy-drama, entitled "A Trick of Fortune." In quest of a quiet spot to end his mortal career, a despondent youth is mistaken for a capitalist looked for by the villagers. The ensuing incidents are extremely ludicrous. The second film is a Nestor drama entitled "In the Commissioned Ranks." It is a feature picture and a marvel of all military plays. Earl Robertson will sing "Killarney, My Home O'er the Sea." "The Modern Comedy Company," in farce comedy and high class vaudeville will be the extra attraction tomorrow night.

CHAPTER XXVI.

In Which They Both Win.

Mr. Grimm dropped into a chair with his teeth clenched, and his face like chalk. For a moment or more he sat there turning it all over in his mind. Truly the triumph had been robbed of its splendor when the blow fell here—here upon a woman he loved.

"There's no shame in the confession of one who is fairly beaten," Isabel went on softly, after a little. "There are many things that you don't understand. I came to Washington with an authority from my sovereign higher even than that vested in the ambassador; I came as I did and compelled Count di Rosini to obtain an invitation to the state ball for me in order that I might meet a representative of Russia there that night and receive an answer as to whether or not they would join in the compact. I received that answer; its substance is of no consequence now. "And you remember where I first met you? It was while you were investigating the shooting of Senor Alvarez in the German embassy. That shooting, as you know, was done by Prince d'Abruzzi, so almost from the beginning my plans went wrong because of the assumption of authority by the prince. The paper he took from Senor Alvarez after the shooting was supposed to bear vitally upon Mexico's attitude toward our plan, but, as it developed, it was about another matter entirely."

"Yes, I know," said Mr. Grimm. "The event of that night which you did not learn was that Germany agreed to join the compact upon conditions. Mr. Rankin, who was attached to the German embassy in an advisory capacity, delivered the answer to me, and I pretended to faint in order that I might reasonably avoid you."

"I surmised that much," remarked Mr. Grimm.

"The telegraphing I did with my fan was as much to distract your attention as anything else, and at the same time to identify myself to Mr. Rankin, whom I had never met. You knew him, of course; I didn't."

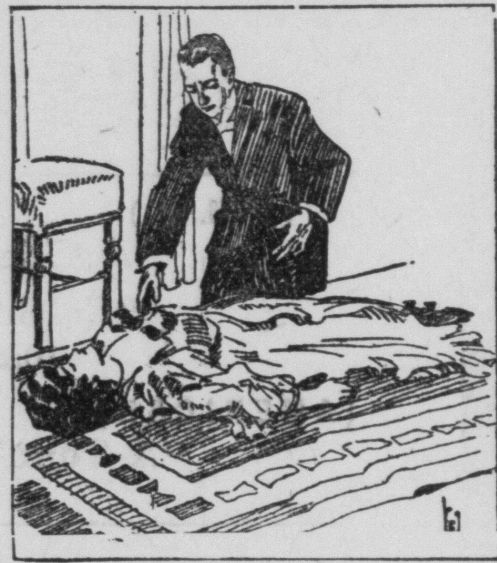

She was silent a while as her eyes steadily met those of Mr. Grimm. Finally she went on:

"When next I met you it was in the Venezuelan legation; you were investigating the theft of the fifty thousand dollars in gold from the safe. I thrust myself into that case, because I was afraid of you; and mercilessly destroyed a woman's name in your eyes to further my plans. made you believe that Senorita Rodriguez stole that fifty thousand dollars, and I returned it to you, presumably, while we stood in her room that night. Only it was not her room—it was mine! I stole the fifty thousand dollars! All the details, even to her trip to see Mr. Griswold in Baltimore in company with Mr. Cadwallader, had been carefully worked out; and she did bring me the combination of the safe from Mr. Griswold on the strength of a forged letter. But she didn't know it. There was no theft, of course. I had no intention of keeping the money. It was necessary to take it to distract attention from the thing I did do—break a lock inside the safe to get a sealed packet that contained Venezuela's answer to our plan. I sealed that packet again, and there was never a suspicion that it had been opened."

"Only a suspicion," Mr. Grimm corrected.

"Then came the abduction of Monsieur Boisseguir, the French ambassador. I plunged into that case as I did in the other because I was afraid of you and had to know just how much you knew. It was explained to you as an attempt at extortion with details which I carefully supplied. As a matter of fact, Monsieur Boisseguir opposed our plans, even endangered them; and it was not advisable to have him recalled or even permit him to resign at the moment. So we abducted him, intending to hold him until direct orders could reach him from Paris. Understand, please, that all these things were made possible by the aid and co-operation of dozens, scores, of agents who were under my orders; every person who appeared in that abduction was working at my direction. The ambassador's unexpected escape disarranged our plans; but he was taken out of the embassy by force the second time under your very eyes. The darkness which made this possible was due to the fact that while you were looking for the switch, and I was apparently aiding, was holding my hand over it all the time to keep you from turning on the light. You remember that?"

In a Stride He Was Beside Her.

Mr. Grimm nodded.

"All the rest of it you know," she concluded wearily. "You compelled me to leave the Venezuelan legation by your espionage, but in the crowded hotel to which I moved I had little difficulty avoiding your Mr. Hastings, your Mr. Blair and your Mr. Johnson, so I came and went freely without your knowledge. The escape of the prince from prison you arranged, so you understand all of that, as well as the meeting and attempted signing of the compact, and the rapid recovery of Senor Alvarez. And, after all, it was my fault that our plans failed, because if I had not been—been uneasy as to your condition and had not made the mistake of going to the deserted little house where you were a prisoner, the plans would have succeeded, the compact been signed."

"I'm beginning to understand," said Mr. Grimm gravely, and a wistful, tender look crept into his eyes. "If it had not been for that act of consideration and kindness to me—"

"We would have succeeded in spite of you," explained Isabel. "We were afraid of you, Mr. Grimm. It was a compliment to you that we considered it necessary to account for your whereabouts at the time of the signing of the compact."

"And if you had succeeded," remarked Mr. Grimm, "the whole civilized world would have come to war."

"I never permitted myself to think of it that way," she replied frankly. "There is something splendid to me in a battle of brains; there is exaltation, stimulation, excitement in it. It has always possessed the greatest fascination for me. I have always won, you know, until now. I failed! And my reward is 'Traitor!'"

"Just a word of assurance now," she went on after a moment. "The Latin compact has been definitely given up; the plan has been dismissed, thanks to you; the peace of the world is unbroken. And who am I? I know you have wondered; I know your agents have scoured the world to find out. I am the daughter of a former Italian ambassador to the Court of St. James. My mother was an English woman. I was born and received my early education in England, hence my perfect knowledge of that tongue. In Rome I am, or have been, alas, the

30 YEARS OF SUCCESS.

Thos. W. Lytle Offers a Remedy For Catarrh. The Medicine Costs Nothing if it Fails.

When a medicine effects a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases, and when we offer that medicine on our own personal guarantee that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe us, or at least put our claim to a practical test when we take all the risk. These are facts which we want the people to substantiate. We want them to try Rexall Mucuo-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of enviable success to his record.

We receive more good reports about Rexall Mucuo-Tone than we do of all other catarrh remedies sold in our store, and if more people only knew what a thoroughly dependable would be the only catarrh remedy we would have any demand for.

Rexall Mucuo-Tone is quickly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disinfect and cleanse the entire mucous membrane tract, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the membrane tissues and relieve sues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong, healthy tissue and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter. Its influence is toward stimulating the mucous cells, aiding digestion and improving nutrition until the whole body vibrates with healthy activity. In a comparatively short time it brings about a noticeable gain in weight, strength, good color and feeling of buoyancy.

We urge you to try Rexall Mucuo-Tone, beginning a treatment today. At any time you are not satisfied, simply come and tell us, and we will quickly return your money without question or quibble. We have Rexall Mucuo-Tone in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Rushville only at our store—The Rexall Store. Thos. W. Lytle.

Countess Rosa d'Orsetti; now I am an exile with a price on my head. That is all, except for several years I was a trusted agent of my government, and a friend of my queen."

She rose and extended both hands gracefully. Mr. Grimm seized the slender white fingers and stood with eyes fixed upon her. Slowly a flush crept into her pallid cheeks, and she bowed her head.

"Wonderful woman!" he said softly.

"I shall ask a favor of you now," she went on gently. "Let all this that you have learned take the place of whatever you expected to learn, and go. Believe me, there can only be one result if you meet—if you meet the inventor of the wireless cap upon which so much was staked, and so much lost." She shuddered a little, then raised the blue-gray eyes beseechingly to his face. "Please go."

Go! The word straightened Mr. Grimm in his tracks and he allowed her hands to fall limply. Suddenly his face grew hard. In the ecstasy of adoration he had momentarily forgotten his purpose here. His eyes lost their ardor; his nerveless hands dropped beside him.

"No," he said.

"You must—you must," she urged gently. "I know what it means to you. You feel it your duty to unravel the secret of the percussion cap? You can't; no man can. No one knows the inventor more intimately than I, and even I couldn't get it from him. There are no plans for it in existence, and even if there were he would not more sell them than you would have accepted a fortune at the hands of Prince d'Abruzzi to remain silent. The compact has failed; you did that. The agents have scattered—gone to other duties. That is enough."

"No," said Mr. Grimm. There was a strange fear tearing at his heart. "No one knows the inventor more intimately than I." "No," he said again. "I won from my government a promise to be made good upon a condition—I must fulfill that condition."

"Won't you go if you know you will be killed," and suddenly her face turned scarlet, "and that your life is dear to me?"

"No."

Isabel dropped upon her knees before him.

"This inventor—this man whom you insist on seeing—is half insane with disappointment and anger," she rushed on desperately. "Remember that a vast fortune, honor, fame were at his finger tips when you—when you placed them beyond his reach by the destruction of the compact. He has sworn to kill you."

"I can't go!"

"If I tell you that of the two human beings in this world whom I love this man is one?"

"No."

A shuffling step sounded in the hallway just outside. Mr. Grimm stepped back from the kneeling figure, and turned to face the door with his revolver ready.

"Great God!" It was a scream of agony. "He is my brother! Don't you see?"

She came to her feet and went staggering across to the door. The key clicked in the lock.

"Your brother!"

"He wouldn't listen to me—you wouldn't listen to me, and now—and now! God have mercy!"

There was a sharp rattling, a clamor at the door, and Isabel turned to Mr. Grimm mutely, with arms outstretched. The revolver barrel clicked under his hand, then, after a moment, he replaced the weapon in his pocket.

"Please open the door," he requested quietly.

"He'll kill you!" she screamed.

Exhausted, helpless, she leaned against a chair with her face in her hands. Mr. Grimm went to her suddenly, tore the hands from her face, and met the tear-stained eyes.

"I love you," he said. "I want you to know that!"

"And I love you—that's why it matters so."

Leaving her there, Mr. Grimm strode straight to the door and threw it open. He saw only the outline of a thin little man of indeterminate age, then came a blinding flash under his eyes, and he leaped forward. There was a short, sharp struggle, and both went down. The revolver! He must get that! He reached for it with the one idea of disarming this madman. The muzzle was thrust toward him, he threw up his arm to protect his head, and then came a second flash.

Instantly he felt the figure in his arms grow limp; and after a moment he rose. The face of the man on the floor was pale gray; and a thin, scarlet thread flowed from his temple. He turned toward Isabel. She lay near the chair, a little crumpled heap. In a stride he was beside her, and lifted her head to his knee. The blue-gray eyes opened into his once, then they closed. She had fainted. The first bullet had pierced her arm; it was only a flesh wound. He lifted her gently and placed her on a couch, after which he disappeared into another room. In a little while there came the cheerful tinkle of a telephone bell.

"Is this the county constable's office?" he inquired. "Well, there's been a little shooting accident at the Murdock Williams' place, five miles out from Alexandria on the old Baltimore Road. Please send some of your men over to take charge. Two hours from now call up Mr. Grimm at Secret Service headquarters in Washington and he will explain. Good-by."

And a few minutes later Mr. Grimm walked along the road toward an automobile a hundred yards away, bearing Miss Thorne in his arms. The chauffeur cranked the machine and climbed to his seat.

"Washington!" directed Mr. Grimm. "Never mind the speed laws."

THE END.

MISFITS.

If you choose to represent the various parts in life by holes upon a table of different shapes, some circular, some triangular, some square, some oblong, and the persons acting these parts by bits of wood of similar shapes, we shall generally find that the triangular person has got into the square hole, the oblong into the triangular and a square person has squeezed himself into the round hole. The officer and the office, the doer and the thing done, seldom fit so exactly that we can say they were almost made for each other.—Sydney Smith.

A HOPEFUL MESSAGE TO SCALP SUFFERERS AND MEN WHO'S HAIR IS TURNING

Dandruff now—bald later. The same is true of scalp diseases. In fact baldness is a scalp disease. The trouble with the greasy salves and lotions, the so-called dandruff and scalp cures you have tried so far is that they don't do anything but temporarily relieve the itching and make the dandruff so it doesn't fall until it's dried out again. Nothing can cure—really cure such troubles but a real scalp medicine that will kill the germs causing dandruff and scalp disease.

Learning from leading fellow druggists throughout America that they had found a whirlwind cure for dandruff, eczema and all diseases of the skin and scalp the F. E. Walcott Drug Store on proving to the laboratories compounding the treatment that it is the most prominent drug store in this city secured the agency for the remedy. This remedy is ZEMO, the clean, liquid preparation that kills the germ of disease and ZEMO SOAP to wash the scalp or skin clear and clean of the dandruff or scale and by its antiseptic qualities soothe and heal.

Sold and guaranteed by druggists everywhere and in Rushville by F. E. Walcott.

An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed. Sold by All Dealers.

Do you know that croup can be prevented? Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It is also a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Sold by All Dealers.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of its souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

NATIONAL MEET OF THE W. Y. C. A.

Large Attendance Expected At Indianapolis Gathering.

A THOUSAND YOUNG WOMEN

No Fewer Than This Number of Delegates Are Looked For at the Meeting of the National Young Women's Christian Association, Which Will Be Held at Indianapolis Next Week
—to Break All Records.

Indianapolis, April 12.—Many signs about the city announce the approach of the Y. W. C. A. national convention, which opens Wednesday of next week and continues through the following Monday, with a conference of secretaries to follow the rest of the week. The reservations nearly equal the capacity of the hotels. Hundreds of young women from over the United States will be entertained in private houses, and many of them will go to boarding houses.

Practically every large city of the country will be represented by voting delegates, while several hundred other active workers are coming for the convention sessions and for the popular meetings. Miss Brooks, business representative of the national committee, thinks that the attendance will be many times larger than at any of the former national meetings.

DEFENDED HIMSELF

Physician Compelled to Shoot When Attacked by Enraged Man.

Princeton, Ind., April 12.—Dr. J. E.
Inskeep shot and instantly killed Asa Dunning, a young man, at Mt. Carmel, Ill., near here. Inskeep had been called to attend Ruth Moore, a river front resident, who was ill. Dunning, a powerful hunchback, intoxicated and jealous, burst into the house and knocked the doctor down repeatedly with a club. Dr. Inskeep ran into another room and warned Dunning not to follow. The enraged man rushed after him and Inskeep fired a shot through his heart after first fruitlessly firing high to warn him.

TALCOTT PAYS

Two Weeks in Jail Cause Change of Mind.

South Bend, Ind., April 12.—Thad
M. Talcott, sr., after two weeks in jail, yielded to the court's demand and paid $145,000 alimony to Nellie S. Talcott, his divorced wife. Attorneys got nearly $8,000 more, it is said, and $2,000 stands as Talcott's bond in a perjury case that is still pending. Talcott left the city as soon as possible after his release. Talcott was caught at Toledo, O., after evading the officers for a year. He was charged with contempt of court as well as with perjury.

Jealousy Led to Exposure.

Logansport, Ind., April 12.—Under the impression that his brother had eloped with his wife, Edward Snoke gave the police information which resulted in Omer Snoke's arrest for copper thefts. Snoke was captured by detectives at Terre Haute and was brought to this city to face a grand larceny charge. The brother, after his arrest, proved he was innocent of the elopement charge.

Two Fishermen Drowned.

South Bend, Ind., April 12.—George Faboo and Peter Major were drowned while fishing in the St. Joseph river, their boat being carried over the dam at Mishawaka. The men were so interested in their catch they did not notice the current was carrying them into danger.

Has Cut Out the "Pills."

Jeffersonville, Ind., April 12.—Roy Barratt has returned from Cincinnati, where he was refused by the naval recruiting officers on the ground that cigarette smoking had affected his heart. Barratt has sworn off and will try again later for admittance to the navy.

Victim of Unusual Accident.

Greensburg, Ind., April 12.—When John Boyce, a laborer, slipped and fell his trousers pocket, exploded and the ball ploughed a hole the entire length of the calf of his left leg, coming out at the instep.

Special Venire Drawn.

Logansport, Ind., April 12.—A special venire of seventy-five men has chael, who is charged with the murder of Levi Pippinger in Carroll county last summer.

Poison Left in Baby's Reach.

fant child of Gilbert A. Elliott, former of eating several strychnine tablets which carelessly had been left within its reach.

to show his small grandson how to

HAIR DROPS OUT

Many People Have a Simple Way of Stopping It.

It was Dr. Sangerbund of Paris who first discovered that dandruff and falling hair were caused by microbes.

And now that Parisian Sage, the remedy that kills the dandruff germ is sold in every town in America, the clean people of this country have awakened to the fact that dandruff is unnecessary; that falling hair and itching scalp can be quickly stopped, and that people who use Parisian Sage will never grow bald.

To every reader of the Daily Republican who wishes to eradicate disgusting dandruff, stop falling hair, and have immaculately clean scalp,
free from itchiness, we make this offer:

F. B. Johnson & Co., will return your money, without red tape, if Parisian Sage does not banish dandruff, stop itching scalp in two weeks.

Parisian Sage is sold by F. B.
Johnson & Co., and druggists everywhere, for 50 cents a large bottle. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed hair dressing, free from grease and stickiness, and will cause hair to grow lustrous and luxuriant. Mail orders

AIRSHIP MAKES HIT IN CHINA AND JAPAN

Captain Baldwin Well Received in the Far East.

Mineola, L. I., April 12.—Captain Thomas S. Baldwin has arrived here after a four months' trip throughout Korea, China, Japan, the Sandwich Islands and the Philippines, during which he gave exhibitions with his biplane, "The Red Devil." With him on the trip were Bud Mars and J. C.
(Tod) Shriver. They have not yet returned, having engagements to meet abroad.

Captain Baldwin said that wherever the trio went they were greeted with the keenest enthusiasm, especially in China and Japan. He said that never anywhere had he seen more curiosity or greater interest shown in the flying machine than in Japan. Crowds numbering 400,000 would gather in one field to watch the flights, he said, and as many as 200,000 people were in an enclosure where admittance would be paid.

Four different resolutions have been introduced in the senate proposing an amendment to the federal constitution providing for popular election of senators.

The Spanish government is worried over the action of France in Morocco since the French troops have occupied new military positions independently

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make no Mistake if You Follow This Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.
If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are common symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. It has cured many stubborn cases in this vicinity.

Can Rushville residents demand further proof than the following testimonial?

Mrs. L. W. Smith, R. F. D. 19, Arlington, Ind., says: "My child was afflicted with kidney complaint and suffered severely from backaches and headaches. The doctors could give no relief and the various remedies that were tried proved just as useless. At last we learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and my husband obtained a box. This preparation soon brought relief and since taking it, the child has been in much better health.
I give Doan's Kidney Pills my most hearty endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

URGENT APPEAL MADE FOR HELP

American Women Said to Be In Danger in Mexico.

SUBJECTED TO INDIGNITIES

Under Command of a Renegade American, Mexican Insurrectos Capture American Miners in Lower California and Are Holding Them Prisoners in a Corral—Several Women in the Party Are Suffering.

San Diego, Cal., April 12.—According to advices received here, G. Raffi, his wife and five children, all of this city, are held prisoners in a corral at Alamo, in Lower California, and friends are making efforts by telegraph to secure their release. It is said that several other American women are also in the corral, and that they have been subjected to indignities by insurrectos under command of Simon Berthold, an American, who has been active in the insurrection.

O. Henry Savage, a relative of Mrs.
Raffi, appealed to Secretary Knox at Washington, and the latter promptly telegraphed the facts to the American ambassador at Mexico City. Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas, in command of the second division of the Pacific fleet here, has been urged by Savage to send a warship to Ensenada, but replied that he could do nothing without orders from Washington. The Americans were all working at a mine near Alamo when Berthold captured the place and made them prisoners. He is strongly intrenched and Savage believes the situation desperate.

HADN'T FORGOTTEN

How Jack Johnson Discharged an Obligation of Gratitude.

San Francisco, April 12.—Jack Johnson, who is spending twenty-five days in the county jail for persistent violation of the speed ordinance, has been able to repay an old debt of gratitude for favors extended to him when he was a small boy in Texas. Thomas Pyne then nursed Johnson through a severe illness and Pyne and his family boarded the boy until his strength was restored. A few days ago Johnson read in the papers that a daughter of Thomas Pyne, recently of Goldfield, had died, but the family was so poor the girl would probably be buried in the potters field. Johnson had his wife look up the Pyne family, and she found they were the same who had once befriended him. The Pynes were once rich. Johnson furnished money for the funeral expenses and has made arrangements to provide the family with a comfortable home.

"Unwritten Law" Gets Setback.

Dallas, Tex., April 12.—The unwritten law has received a setback in the highest court of Texas. Don Grey, of Burnett, one of the wealthiest men in Texas, appeared in court at Burnett after his case was affirmed, surrendered and was ordered taken to the prison to serve five years for killing William Phillips, who he claimed had wronged a female relative.

Determined to Outdo Each Other.

London, April 12.—Recently Germany, to outdo Great Britain, built for her new dreadnoughts guns of 14-inch caliber as compared with England's 13.5-inch weapons. Now it is reported that Britain has built a 15-inch gun to be used on all the battleships which are being built.

Indicted the Proprietors.

New York, April 12.—Max Blanck and Isaac Harris, the proprietors of the Triangle Waist company, whose factory was burned out on March 25 with the loss of 142 lives, have been indicted charged with manslaughter.
They were released in $26,000 bail each.

Employees Have Narrow Escapes.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 12.—A gas explosion occurred at the electric plant that furnishes the light to the courthouse, jail and other county buildings.
The building, which is of brick, was destroyed and several employees had narrow escapes from being injured.

Anse White Succumbs to Wounds.

Jackson, Ky., April 12.—Anse White, who shot and killed Jason Deaton, is dead from the wounds he received.
White is a brother of Tom White, who is serving a life term for the murder of Attorney James B. Marcum.
